Sister Kandace & Amara Alston

Meet adorable mom, Sister Kandace P. Alston, and her active and very cute, four-year-old daughter, Amara. She is a professional counselor and has been a member of Tabernacle since age eight. An experienced Garfield High School Counselor of thirteen years, she counsels and empowers ninth and twelfth grade students to reach their goals. She earned both her Bachelor's and Master's Degrees from Seattle University in Psychology and School Counseling respectively.

Sister Kandace is a Seattle native and the only child of Lavita and Rev. Mark Alston. Blessed with the spiritual gift of helps and encouragement ever since middle school, she loves listening and helping others. Her favorite flowers are calla lilies, favorite color - purple, and favorite scripture - Lamentations 3:22-23 - ...His compassions never fail. They are renewed every morning. Great is thy faithfulness.

About motherhood, Sis. Kandace replied, "motherhood didn't come easy, but if you wait on God, He will answer." Let's celebrate this strong, unique and loving mom!
